Golf Courses

Trump Aberdeen

The design of the golf course has involved an iterative process between the norms of classic and championship golf course layout and ecological, economic constraints of the site on the other.

Cruden Bay

A traditional Scottish links golf course, originally designed by Tom Morris of St. Andrews and Archie Simpson in 1899 and re-designed in the 1920's by Tom Simpson and Herbert Fowler.

St. Andrews

From the second you stand on the tee in front of the R&A clubhouse until you putt out on the adjoining 18th green you feel you are in golfing heaven.

Kingsbarns

Talked about in the same breath as famous names like Muirfield, Pebble Beach, and the Old Course. Perhaps the most celebrated course of the 21st century, One of the best layouts in the world.

Crail

A combination of stunning coastal views, centuries of history and hugely enjoyable golf is what makes "Balcomie" Links one of Scotland's most finely polished, golfing gems.

Panmure

"Hogan" hole (the sixth) and the Buddon Burn (the twelfth) conspire to give you a round of golf to remember. Renowned as a final qualifying venue for the Open Championship held at Carnoustie.

Gullane

One of Scotland's most prestigious members clubs, mixing the finest tradition with some of the most admired natural links land in the world.

Renaissance

A Tom Doak designed course - his only current course in Scotland. It opened in 2008 and now has some of the most "stunning" holes in golf to add to its already championship golf course.
